

Are you part of the picture?

And if you aren't providing your pieces, our picture is incomplete.

Sharing your story with others may not seem important, but if your ideas are working well, then imagine how many times over those ideas can be multiplied when relayed throughout the denomination. Plus, sharing your concerns and stories could alert others who have the support of prayer or suggestions and ideas of their own to offer you.

Make sure your church's stories are heard, and feel free to share your thoughts and opinions.

Help others see the big picture by promoting communication efforts like Visitor and Yes! in your churches—help circulate our collective story.

There are many new resources available at our newly updated denominational web site, including a kit for our correspondents.
